

Advanced Recovery Concepts

Matthew Coffman, LPCC

Matthew is a Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor experienced both in Community Based and Outpatient settings working with teens and Adults. Matthew is experienced in Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT) in treating many mental health issues.

Treatment areas include Anxiety, Depression, Panic Disorder, Anger Management, Parenting issues and Biblical counseling. Matthew received his Bachelors degree at the University of Akron. He earned his Master of Clinical Pastoral Counseling degree at Ashland Theological Seminary. Matthew began serving in the mental health field in 1995 and has been a licensed therapist since 1999.